The applicant:

- against -

Greta Tintin to Arnhem Tunerg

The holder:

Present: The detainee

protocol

Hospital:

The discussion was conducted through an interpreter in the detainee's language and with her full understanding.

The court clarifies to the detainee that she is in the custody review court in Israel, and that removal and custody orders have been issued against her and that he will remain in custody until he is removed from Israel.

The court's comment -

According to the statements of the defendant's attorney, Attorney Tatour, her arguments as presented during the hearing of the case 9275375, are also relevant to the case of the holder in question.

The owner's words:

She wants to return to her country. She has a valid passport.

Requests that medication be given to those held in custody.

She has nothing to add beyond that.
